

Fairwarp Remembers

WW1 Wall Hanging

As part of our WW1 commemorations, several villagers got together to make this wall hanging to remember the 26 Fairwarp fallen.

- 1 - A poppy in memory of one seen at The Theipval Memorial to the missing of the Somme by Rosemary Mulady
- 2 - Appliquéd sunset over poppy field by Elizabeth Gutteridge
- 3 - Dates of the war embroidered by Tracy Atchison
- 4 - Appliquéd poppy field with soldier by Shelley Lee
- 5 - Cross stitched iconic red poppy for remembrance by Jan Kemsley
- 6 - Battle names embroidered by Naomi Reynolds
- 7 - The Royal Sussex Regiment badge by Rosemary Mulady
- 8, 13, 18, 23 - Flanders Fields poem embroidered by Naomi Reynolds
- 9 - Hands raised in prayer of thanksgiving for peace, November 1918 embroidered by Janie Hooper
- 10 - Graves of the fallen embroidered by Helen Rowland
- 11 - The Silent Volunteers in red work by Di Bowley
- 12 - Gallipoli map appliquéd using the Royal Sussex Regiment tie by Helen Rowland
- 14 - Memories of home 1914-1918, primroses in the Ashdown Forest by Janie Hooper
- 15 - Poppies in red work by Di Bowley
- 16 - We will remember them embroidered by Jan Kemsley
- 17 - Gypsy Caravans. Two of our war dead were from the travelling community. Needlepoint by Helen Rowland
- 19 - Pigeons in cross stitch by Naomi Reynolds

- 20 - Cross and barbed wire embroidered by Di Bowley
- 21 - Appliquéd poppy by Sue Guckenheim
- 22 - WW1 tank in felt work by Melanie Scott
- 24 - Lest we forget and Tommy silhouette in needlepoint by Tracy Atchison
- 25 - Knitted poppy by Caty Worlock Pope
- 26, 27, 29, 30 - The names of Fairwarp WW1 fallen embroidered by Tracy Atchison
- 28 - The Union Jack sewn by Sue Guckenheim

